The official newsletter of the Corvette Club of Northern Delaware - September 2010

In Memory of Jim Hagerty
1941 - 2010

On the Road by Andy Rumford

September finds the Corvette Club of Northern Delaware mourning terribly the loss of one of its own members, Jim Hagerty. Jim passed away on Monday August 30th. A Member of CCND since 2002, Jim's mosport green, 1966 coupe could always be found at CCND functions and events. His license plate was unmistakable, it simply read, "LEPRCON". To say that Jim Hagerty was a fan of Notre Dame Football was an understatement. Most of us who knew Jim a bit were keenly aware of his devotion to the "Irish". Jim's daily emails and jokes surely kept me laughing. I will miss them terribly.

CCND will be discussing at our Monthly meetings what we can do, for Jim as a "Club" in order to keep his memory alive for years to come.

As seen in the News Journal below:

"James A. Hagerty, Jr.

Age 68, of Wilmington, DE, passed away tragically on Monday, August 30, 2010 at Carousel Park. Born in Wilmington, Jim was the son of the late Josephine C. (Black) and James A. Hagerty, Sr. He was a 1960 graduate of Salesianum School and attended Goldey Beacom College. A member of the Teamsters Union, he retired after 24 years of service. He then worked for New Castle County for five years. He was a member of the Marine Corp Reserve and the Corvette Club of Delaware. An avid Notre Dame Football fan, he loved the beach, pool and a cold beer and enjoyed bowling. He was a member of St. John the Beloved Church. In addition to his parents, Jim was predeceased by his son, James A. Hagerty III in 2008 and daughter, Wendy J Hagerty in 1971. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Mary Anna (Havill) Hagerty; his daughters, Megan Manuel and her husband, Jeff of Wilmington, Tina Reynolds of Elsmere, and Mary Alice Richey and her husband, Todd of Aurora, CO; his daughter-in-law, Michelle Hagerty, of Wilmington; and his brother, Joseph and his wife, Lorraine of Wilmington. Also surviving are his grandchildren, Kiley Manuel, Ryan Reynolds, Jordyn and Colin Richey and Elisabeth and Ian Hagerty; and several nieces and nephews.

Friends and family are invited to visitation on Friday, September 3 between 5 and 8 pm at MEALEY FUNERAL HOME, Limestone and Milltown Roads, Wilmington. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday morning at 10 am at St. John the Beloved Church, 907 Milltown Road, Wilmington. Interment will follow at Gracelawn Memorial Park, New Castle. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made the Hagerty Grandchildren Education Fund c/o Edward Jones, 724 Yorklyn Road #325, Hockessin, DE 19707. Please make checks payable to Edward Jones and mark "Hagerty Grandchildren Education Fund" in the memo section of your check. "

Rest well Jim....you'll forever be in our hearts.

CCND Cruise Night – August 7, 2010
Photos by Steve Blanchies, story by Jim Ebner

Over 150 cars; classics, street-rods, Corvettes, and more attend the first CCND Sponsored Cruise Night at Lantana Square on August 7th. CCND raised $286 from the 50-50 and the store merchants were very impressed with the showing. Our next one on September 4th promises to be even bigger and better. Come out and support the club and see some great cars.

Corvettes for Kids – August 8, 2010

Story and Photos by Emily and Jim Ebner

This was the 25th year for the Corvettes' for Kids and hopefully it will not be the last. This years show and related events have risen over $38,000 for this year's spokes child Dillon. Many thanks to Andy Rumford, Michael Metcalf, his grandson Michael and Emily Ebner for their help in the very early morning and throughout the day supporting this event. Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of CCND:

Over the past several months, it has been becoming more and more difficult to publish a monthly newsletter. I really need your support to continue producing the monthly newsletter for such an outstanding club, anything can be used and with all of us working together, we can make the newsletter even better. Please send me any articles or pictures you would like to be posted.

Thank You,
Jim Ebner – Editor, CCND Vettester Newsletter jimebner@msn.com
